Transportation

This page provides the driving directions and distances to the Cincinnati / Northern Kentucky International Airport. We offer you both Bus Companies: Northern Kentucky and Cincinnati, Ohio as an alternate way to commute. The Anderson Ferry is not only a viable way to connect Boone County and the west side of Cincinnati; it is a fun ride for the kids.

The Cincinnati-NKY International Airport is located 13 miles south of downtown Cincinnati in Northern Kentucky.

Security Information

Visit the TSA or call 866-289-9673

Emergencies

Call Airport Police at 859-767-3123

Lost & Found

Items on aircraft contact your airline.

For all other items click here.

Comments or Concerns

Send us an e-mail or call(859-767-3230

Important Numbers

Administration — 859-767-3151

Customer Relations — 859-767-3230

Employment — 859-292-2603

DoubleTree Hotel — 859-371-6166

Media Calls — 859-767-6397

Noise — 859-767-7020

Parking — 859-767-3105

Police — 859-767-3213

Post Office — 859-371-4813

Shuttles & Limos — 859-990-8841

Taxi Service — 859-767-3260

Tours — 859-767-3144

US Customs — 859-767-7002

Transportation options:

Transit Authority of Northern Kentucky (TANK) Bus Service

859-331-TANK (8265)

Anderson Ferry

859-586-5007

Cincinnati METRO Bus System

513-621-4455

The ferry connects the western part of Cincinnati, Ohio to Kentucky along Route 8 near the junction of Kentucky Routes 20 and 212 which provide the main access to the Cincinnati/Northern Kentucky International Airport. Many commuters use this service daily to save time.

ALL INFORMATION HEREIN IS BELIEVED ACCURATE BUT NOT GUARANTEED.

Coffman's Realty

1100 S. Ft. Thomas Ave. Fort Thomas, KY 41075-2495 | (859) 441-8090 | RealEstate@CoffmansRealty.com